DEPARTMENT'S SEMINAR/EVENTS

- Congratulations to Professor Kevin Solomon for being selected for the 2023 Llyod N. Ferguson Young Scientist Award from the National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers
- Dr. Jason Madinya (PhD 2022 from UIUC), a postdoctoral researcher in the Jayaraman Lab, was recently awarded the NSF MPS ASCEND fellowship. This fellowship is highly competitive and involves a full length NSF proposal which goes through a rigorous peer review process with 4-5 reviews. For his fellowship research he will be conducting molecular modeling and simulation studies in Jayaraman lab for bioinspired polymeric materials synthesized in Kayser lab.
